

Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

It looks as if the devil never took a vacation.

A cold friend is often the most trustworthy.

A man with a cold feels heroic, a girl disgraced.

A trust isn't the minute you get to be a part of it.

Fun takes money to get and medicine to get over.

A man's idea of giving the square deal is to himself.

Excuses can't be convincing unless they are your own.

The keystone of the household arch is the kitchen range.

Any man will go home if every other place is closed.

The surest cure for foolish love seems to be marriage.

Most people spend their time either eating or talking about it.

Excellence is in the opinion of the one who thinks he has it.

From lying to his wife a man learns to lie to the whole world.

It takes more manliness to forgive anybody than to fight him.

The good don't really die young, because they never are born.

The Lord must take care of good women, for certainly men don't.

Lots of men will risk their lives when they won't risk their dollars.

What women feel is more convincing to them than what men know.

A loud voice often has great success at passing itself off for brains.

Nobody wants to be as good as he thinks everybody else ought to be.

Snow melts away under a bright sun, money in any kind of weather.

It takes a woman to get a five-line letter and fill ten pages answering it.

Kiss but never tell, and it's the same way about gambling if you lose.

The baby learns things as fast as its parents can tell whoopers about them.

Temptation always gets an introduction to you under some other name.

A woman sneers at big shoes, no matter what the size of the feet in them.

The high cost of living doesn't reconcile many people to the low cost of dying.

Truth is always in danger of sudden death; superstition seems to be immortal.

A girl needs ribbons to tie up herself; she could tie up a man with cobwebs.

There's hardly anybody who doesn't think, at times, if they are his own, are arguments.

The first time a man does wrong it frightens him; after that his family and friends.

One girl knows more about fighting than a whole regiment of soldiers know about fighting.

If a woman couldn't match ribbons to her hair she'd just as lief match her hair to ribbons.

The man who knows most about a thing is usually the willingest to hear other opinions on it.

What a girl likes about a man sending her flowers is that some other girl didn't get them.

The way to catch a liar is to pretend to believe him so he will go on till he traps himself.

Women can get almost as much fun out of a sensational divorce case as men out of a dog fight.

It's the wise man who understands that the more he knows the more there is for him to learn.

The average man is more pleased to be able to have his name in a newspaper than on a check.

Maybe a woman figures it out it is better to trust her husband because he might be worse if she didn't.

When anybody begs you to tell him his faults it's a sign that if you do you are going to make an enemy.

The way for a man to make an evening pass quickly is for him not to spend it home with his family.

For a dispute to get red hot it's only necessary that neither side should know what it is talking about.

There's no man who thinks he's such a patriot as the one who is being supported out of the public treasury.

If a man can get his wife to beat the children into obedience he will brag how it shows the value of his discipline.

When you get a good article cheap it is good to use a lot of it because nine times out of ten it is produced on a quantity basis to reduce the price and the makers depend on a generous demand to enable them to keep the price down. Use electricity then use more electricity, it's the cheapest and best thing in Canfield today.

There may be investments that look better but there's no safer or more willing worker than a Liberty bond.

The man who thinks all the joys are downtown should take his wife along with him on some of his pleasure seeking excursions.

The War, The Farm and The Farmer

The Farmer Everywhere Loves Peace The American Farmer Especially Loves Peace

---BUT

the farmer everywhere is a warrior when war is the only thing which will make and keep him free—either a warrior or a serf.

He cannot rally to the colors as quickly as can the dwellers in the cities, because it takes longer to send to the farms than to the cities the fiery cross of the call to arms. Many do not hear the first blast of the trumpet, and others do not at first understand its meaning.

It is impossible to see the farmers of the United States on fire by means of any sudden spark of rumor; but when the farmers do ignite, they burn with a slow, hot fire which nothing can put out. In a long fight they are always found sturdily carrying the battle across No-Man's Land to the foe. The American farmer will give all that he has and all that he is to win this great war-against war.

This war was at first hard to understand. We did not then realize that a monster has arisen with a thousand arms, who could reach across the seas, and could take from us three-fourths of everything we grew without our being aware of it, and could follow up this robbery with invasion, subjugation, and national death. We did not at first realize this; but finally we saw that it was so.

If the Imperial German Government had made and enforced an order that no American farmer should leave his own land, that he could not haul a load of grain or drive a head of stock to town—if, in fact, the Kaiser had laid an interdict on all intercourse between farm and farm and between farm and town, he would have done only a little more than he accomplished by his interdict against American farmers' use of the sea. Look at the condition of the American farmer in the latter part of 1914 and the first half of 1915, and see.

We know a farmer who sold his 1914 crop of 25,000 bushels of wheat for seventy cents a bushel. Farmers in the South sold their cotton for half the cost of producing it. All this time those portions of the world whose ports were open were ready to pay almost any price for our products; and when we finally rallied and set once more in motion the ships of the world, prosperity returned to the farms of America.

Why did we draw the sword? Was it to keep up the price of wheat and cotton, and to protect trade only? If someone should order you to remain on your farm, and not to use the public highways, would your resistance be based only on the fear of loss in property, the profits from failure to market your crops, the inconvenience in not being able to buy your supplies in town? By no means! You would fight to the last gasp, not to make money, but to be free.

JEHOVAH

Nature is wonderfully made
Of eternal use;
Her foundations laid
On the invisible Muse.

His immutability
Is eternal cause;
His invariability
Everlasting laws.
His infinite infinitude
Is the spring of youth;
His creative attitude
Indestructible truth.

His inexhaustible love
Infinity of light;
His holy spirit and dove
Eternity of right.
His infinity wrought
The visible and unseen;
His invisible thought
Measureless and supreme.

He is life's infinity.
Nature flows from Him;
He is man's divinity.
We live and reign in Him.
He is the first and last,
The holy fire and flame;
The present, future and past
Jehovah is His name.
S. J. Bush, Greenford, Ohio.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer headache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Canfield evidence—doubly proven.

L. M. Cox, mason, High St., says: "I was troubled with pains in my back and the kidney secretions were scanty and contained sediment. I began to feel alarmed and was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I got relief at once and continued use cured me." (Statement given October 23, 1911.)

No Trouble Since.

On April 2, 1917, Mr. Cox said: "I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for curing me of a severe attack of kidney trouble. Although I haven't had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills since that time, I still have much faith in them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cox had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.
